O GOD, when Thou appearest, darkness flies. Thy light and Thy glory shine forth on the earth, and Thou art exalted, O Lord, above all gods. We worship Thy glorious Name, O Lord God Almighty. Thou only art my rock and my salvation and my defence, and I shall not be moved. Thou art my salvation and my glory, my refuge, the rock of my strength, O Lord of all power and might. Our Lord is exalted above all gods.

O praise the Lord, all ye people, and praise Him, all ye lands. His merciful kindness endureth forever. Praise Him in songs of joy. We praise Thee, O Lord our God. We worship Thy glorious Name, O Lord God Almighty. Be Thou exalted, O God, above all heavens, Thy glory above all the earth.

O Lord God, when Thou appearest, darkness flies, for Thou, Lord, art greater than all that are in the earth, and Thou art exalted, O Lord, above all gods. O Lord God Almighty, we worship Thy glorious Name.

Anthem, From "The Creation" Haydn

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament.
Today that is coming speaks it the day:
The night that is gone to following night.
In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.

Recessional, Hymn 154

Postlude, Fantasie on a theme for Pentecost Foulkes

"Ourselves Your Servants for Jésus' Sake."

To-day is the great feast of Pentecost, upon which the Holy Catholic Church had its beginning. I hope to preach this morning on "How the Church Is One." Dr. Cooke will be evening Preacher.

Whitsun Monday and Tuesday there will be a second Mass at 9.30 A.M. Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday are Ember Days, times of abstinence and prayer for those about to be ordained. I commend to your special prayers the Rev. Cassius M. Hunt, long-time an acolyte in this church, now just ordained to the Sacred Priesthood in Wisconsin.

To-morrow, at 1.30 P.M., in the "New Old South," I am to preach the Anniversary Sermon at the 284th Anniversary of the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company.

Tuesday, I deliver the Commencement Address at Ossining School, Ossining, N. Y., going on thence to Syracuse University for part of the Commencement exercises there. D. V., I shall return Saturday evening.

Dr. Cooke will give the Friday evening lecture, his subject being, "Buddhism in Japan."

After Trinity Sunday, no more breakfasts will be served till autumn.

Fr. Whitehead asks for the return of a number of books borrowed from him, especially certain volumes the absence of which breaks valuable sets. While you are looking, see if you have any of mine, please.

Two more numbers of The Message will be printed this season, to be followed by a booklet giving the summer order of services, information about the Parish, and a missionary appeal. During the summer, Fr. Nattress will be in charge, assisted by Dr. Eaton. Our dear friend Fr. Whitehead, now in his third year of most acceptable ministry among us, has felt the call to independent work of his own, and goes, on July 1, to take charge of the largest parish in the Virgin Islands, St. Paul's, Fredericksted, St. Croix. He has yielded to Bishop Colmore's urgency, and will remain for three months, deciding at the end of that time whether to remain permanently. Our prayers and affectionate good wishes will go with him to America's newest possession.

Pray for the soul of Frank H. C. Reynolds, a devout communicant of this parish who fell asleep May 28.

William Harman van Allen

Four thousand and eight hundred dollars, given towards the Parish apportionment of $15,184 is the treasurer's report to-day. Sums pledged in weekly or monthly amounts, together with single gifts made for the whole year, seem to give promise of about $10,000. Should every pledge be fulfilled there would yet be a large deficit in the sum asked of this Parish for the Church's Call. As yet, however, only a small proportion of the many parishioners have given at all. Let us each consider our own responsibility. There need be no deficit.
